

Fringe Benefit Time Frames

Can I file a claim online to be reimbursed?

No, claims will need to be submitted manually utilizing the Reimbursement form and attaching your itemized statements to be able to be reimbursed.

How can I tell what claim has been denied?

You can log into your account or mobile app to view any previously denied claims. When logging in to your account, click on the “Accounts” tab and then “Claims”. You can filter your search by the claim status of “Denied” to view all denied claims.

Does this extension change the period in which I can spend FSA funds?

Notice 2020-01 does not change the dates during which expenses must be incurred; rather, it only provides additional time to submit claims.

Can I use my Debit Card for expenses to exhaust my available balance?

No, debit cards cannot be utilized if you are wanting to exhaust your previous plan years funds. A claim reimbursement form with itemized receipts will need to be submitted showing the expenses were incurred within the plan year that the run-out period is extended.
